

Supporting All K–12 English Learners

Empower students to access | Language • Literacy • Content

K–3 Phonics & Early Literacy Program

K–12 English Language Development Programs

Elementary

Elementary - Global Focus

Secondary

Secondary

Available on Spring
2024

K–12 Beginner Programs

Elementary

Secondary

Readers

Leveled Readers

Online Literacy Solution

Discover Phonics for Foundational Literacy is a dynamic, fully interactive print and digital English language arts foundational skills program designed to build phonemic awareness and phonetic skills children need to become strong readers. Engaging songs, manipulatives, decodable readers, media, and hands-on games and activities motivate and teach children as they embark on an adventure to discover (and master!) the amazing world of phonics.

Explore the program:

learn.vistahigherlearning.com/discover-phonics

Bridges to Literature and Content is a comprehensive, standards-based literacy program designed to empower middle school students to become stronger, independent readers. This powerful print and digital solution develops academic language and literacy skills through authentic texts and content-driven lessons, helping striving readers achieve grade-level proficiency.

Explore the program:

learn.vistahigherlearning.com/bridges

Discover Connect—a comprehensive, standards-based K-6, and Connect with English 1-6, English language development program designed specifically for English learners. Connect with English has a global focus, thus inviting students to reflect on their culture.

Explore the program:

learn.vistahigherlearning.com/connect learn.vistahigherlearning.com/connectwithenglish/

Get Ready! is a comprehensive English program designed for newcomer and beginning-level proficiency students, catering to the unique needs of elementary, middle, and high school students. The curriculum is founded on specialized knowledge essential for working with culturally and linguistically diverse learners.

Explore the program:

learn.vistahigherlearning.com/get-ready-sail-soar

learn.vistahigherlearning.com/getready/

Engage is a literacy program designed to empower high school students, especially multilingual learners and striving readers, to become strong readers, confident writers, and critical thinkers. Both the print resources and the personalized digital solution are designed to support students at different proficiency levels as they develop their academic language and literacy skills.

Explore the Program:

<https://learn.vistahigherlearning.com/engage/>

Discover Get Reading!—new leveled libraries with differentiated language and readability levels for targeted reading support. Each print and digital Get Reading! library includes 120–144 readers, consisting of literary and informational texts written at three proficiency levels and focusing on a range of content areas.

Explore the program:

learn.vistahigherlearning.com/get-reading

Boost is a new English language and literacy program developed through the lens of a second language learner and focused on all language domains: foundational skills, listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Boost is a digital literacy solution that connects standards-based data to instruction.